HealthLine

HealthLine is a free, confidential 24-hour health advice

telephone line staffed by registered nurses. They can provide you with immediate, professional health advice or information and direct you to the most appropriate source of care. HealthLine can help you decide whether you should treat your own symptoms, go to a clinic, wait to see your doctor, or go to a hospital emergency room.

Learn the cost of your ambulance ride before you need it!

The cost of ambulance service in Saskatchewan is shared between the provincial government, Saskatchewan Health Authority, and individual ambulance users.

The minimum fee for all users is $245 per trip.

A $2.30/km. mileage fee is also charged for all out-of-town calls. A waiting fee of $100 is charged for every hour, after the first half-hour.

If you are a Saskatchewan resident over the age of 65, the Saskatchewan Senior Citizens' Ambulance Assistance Program will pay for ambulance fees above the first $250, on any one trip. Residents are advised to purchase insurance, in advance, or make payment arrangements through a local finance department.

How to Use the Emergency Department Where do I go for medical help?

1. For life-threatening (emergent) or urgent situations that need immediate medical attention including: heart attack, shock, life or limb-threatening cases, broken bones and bad cuts, go to the nearest 24 hour emergency department.
(see list under Emergency Medical Services in this guide)
Individuals will first be assessed by a registered nurse. If necessary, they will be seen by the doctor-on-call.
2. Or, call the free HealthLine at 811.
3. If needed, for other (non-urgent) situations such as some of the following, please call your doctor or nurse practitioner for an appointment at their clinic:

- Rashes
- Possible sprains
- Cold & flu symptoms
- Fevers
- Minor cuts
- Medication refills
- Physical checkups
- Uncomplicated dressings
- Suture removal
- Earaches
